

Storage of Liquor at Golfers' Terrace

Members are reminded that bottles stored more than 6 months at the Golfers' Terrace bar will be disposed without notification to the owners. This is to create space to store new bottles.

Duty-free Liquor

The Club has been advised by Goldenbeach Seafood Restaurant Pte Ltd that consumption or storage of duty-free liquor on Club premises is a breach of the caterer's licence conditions, issued by Singapore Customs. Members should refrain from bringing duty-free bottles to the Club.

Crabby Night

The inaugural EatAllYouCan Crabby Night affair on Wednesday 18 July 2012 at the Golfers' Terrace was a sellout event. Members with families and friends were happily cracking the crab crawls and tucking in the succulent meat. Kathelene Rappa held her hole-in-one celebration with a host of Changi ladies; dancing and swinging to the songs and music of Benji the versatile musician.

To spice up the event, the latest car video camera models were on sale from A Genuine Technology ; and Flying Fish white wines from Margaret River, Australia were on offer from HockHua Wines Pte Ltd.

At the end of the evening, there's no prize for guessing correctly, who were walking sideways to their cars.

Watch out for the next EatAllYouCan event in the coming months.

CHANGI GOLF CLUB NEWSLETTER

The resort-style golf club, since 1971

AUGUST 2012

Happy 47th National Day and Selamat Hari Raya Adilfitri to our Muslim members and friends.

Note from Editorial Chairman.

Celebrate, but don't forget about safety and health !

Amidst the August (National Day and Hari Raya) long weekend celebrations, members are reminded not to over-indulge and never compromise on safety and health measures.

As more employees will be on leave, those who are at work must take extra care while trying to get their colleagues' job done. Stay alert always and do not take on excessive overtime. Supervisors must also be mindful of worker fatigue and manage work schedules properly. Members understanding and co-operation will be most appreciated.

Enjoy a safe, healthy and great holiday season.

Bits & Pieces from Club Manager's Desk

Feeding those extra mouths

Members are reminded that buffet dinners on club event nights are strictly for participating members. Members wishing to bring guests / family are respectfully reminded to inform the office in advance of their intention. This is to ensure that food is enough for everyone. Under or over ordering of food is a logistic responsibility. Members are not at liberty to bring along the extra mouths if they did not inform the office in advance.

Thank you for your understanding and co-operation.

Course Etiquette

At the recently completed Singapore Junior Golf Championship held at the Keppel Club from June 5 – 8, 2012 a Thai national was disqualified for a serious breach of etiquette.

The competitor was disqualified by the Tournament Committee for using abusive language including the "F" word on the Tournament Director after completing the second round. He lost his temper when he was not satisfied with the explanation given to him by the Tournament Director for an error on the pin placements chart. Although he made an attempt to apologise later, the Committee was of the view that it was an insincere attempt and that it was a serious breach of etiquette and ruled that he be disqualified under Rule 33-7.

This incident was reviewed by the SGA Training & Selection Sub-Committee and it was decided that he should be barred from playing in SGA and SGA-sanctioned tournaments for one year.

The young boy is the son of an owner of a golf country club in the Land of the Smiles.

In my previous Bits and Pieces column I penned about etiquette on the golf course and this incident shows the heavy price a bad athletic had to pay. In any sport, etiquette and good mannerism must complement with the inborn talent.

'Back home on the range' there are still tantrum-throwing, "F" language, litterbug and disrespectful golfers. Thank Golf they are in the minority. Be considerate and keep all your bad habits at home. Just like the member who spread a bath towel on the floor for his wet feet while wiping his body with another towel. Wonder if he does that at home.

7th Month Festival Dinner

Sunday 26 August 2012 – General Play. There will be a larger than normal crowd especially for the PM game. The main car park will be closed for the dinner. Members and their guests are kindly requested to follow the instructions of the security guard / parking warden for car parking.

New Security Agency service.

Effective 23 July 2012, Bulls-Eye Security Service Pte Ltd is providing the security guard service to the Club. Members' understanding and co-operation will be much appreciated during the initial transition period.

Friends of Changi (FoC) Golf Vouchers

FoC golf vouchers make an ideal gift for your business associates and golf kakis to play at Changi. Call Zack for details.
