

Around the Greens

Taking Care of the Fairways and Greens

Changi is trade marked with "the best greens" amongst golfers from the other clubs. Members who are not regular visitors to the various golf courses may not truly understand this compliment.

While credit goes to our ground staffs for the rigor in the maintenance of the greens, members' co-operation in repairing the ball marks plays a big role in ensuring that the greens' surface is not poke-marked.

Golfers walking on the greens must ensure that they do not drag their feet and leaving clusters of shoe spike marks around the cup.

Marshals are empowered to report any inconsiderate behavior by any member who contravenes the bye-laws on the course.

Call On Hole Reminder

Hole 2/11 is a compulsory call on hole. The flight on the 2/11 green must stay clear of the greens and wait for the golfers to tee off.

Hole-In-One

Hole-In-One achievement at Changi Golf Club on Thursday, 16 August 2012. Congratulations to Ms Nancy Ng (Q 025/9) on the 13th hole par 3, 112 meters.

House & Facilities Updates

Golf Bag Locker Room

Please help to keep the Golf Bag Locker Room neat and tidy. Do not leave your golf bag unattended in the room as the Club will not be responsible for any loss of items.

Members are also reminded to switch off the fan and lights before leaving the room.

CHANGI GOLF CLUB NEWSLETTER

The resort-style golf club, since 1971

OCTOBER 2012

Selamat Hari Raya
Aidil Adha to our
Muslim members and friends.

Note from Editorial Chairman.

We are now into the last quarter of 2012.

It will be a busy period for golfing as our CID championship is traditionally held in October. A couple of inter-club fixtures are also scheduled in October & November.

Following our 40th Anniversary Dinner in November last year, no New Year's Eve Dinner was held. We are please to advise that a New Year's Countdown Dinner & Dance will return to CGC's social scene this year.

Happy Golfing.

Bits & Pieces from Club Manager's Desk

What priced a club membership?

A Certificate of Entitlement (COE) is for the successful bidder to lay his hands on the wheel of his dream. Unwittingly or in full knowledge, the owner and vehicle would have new responsibilities and rules. Paying the monthly fees on time to the finance company, road tax, insurance, unexpected traffic jams, car park inconvenience, cost of vehicle maintenance, road bullies, etc. etc... and the hefty penalties if one gets onto the wrong side of the traffic laws.

A club membership is similar to the Certificate of Entitlement, whereby a person is admitted into a club by paying an entrance fee. Subsequently the member's interest within the club will be taken care of, in accordance with the club rules and bye-laws. If a member defaulted on the subscription payments or flouts any rule, the club's rules/bye-laws come into play. A club membership is only as good as the owner keeping his/her subscriptions in credit and conducts himself/herself in a respectable manner.

An accident-free motorist would receive an annual no claim bonus from the insurer and a letter of appreciation from the traffic police agency.

An honorable member would be accorded much respect by his peers.

And the return of investment ? it's as good as anybody's guess.

Kluang Country Club vs Changi Golf Club interclub game

Saturday 8 September 2012

"This has to be the largest contingent of players from Changi," exclaimed an excited Kluang club official. 25 members made the overland trip by coach while 9 members chose to drive up. The weather was perfect for golf and after a 'running lunch' washed down with beers, the siren sounded for the shot-gun start of a torturous afternoon walk. The shortage of players from Kluang reduced the number of protocol flights.

Back at the clubhouse the ragged Changians, in between gulps of ice-cold toddy, were telling tales of their tedious long march.

The ethnic buffet dinner, topped up with crispy cracking papadam, was a delightful affair. So was the roasted spit lamb, its tender meat under a juicy layer of skin emitting an aromatic scent, served a silent knockout blow to an unsuspecting allergic.

The day's formalities were soon conducted by Kluang's Vice Captain and Changi's Captain. Boisterous yam sengs soon echoed, assisted largely by the vintage scotch and the rest of the evening was "business as usual."

At 10.45 pm the merry making was extended to the hotel for those who could still count the fingers on their hands. For the others it was a well-deserved good night.

Thank you Kluang for the happy day.

A near miss accident

On Saturday, 8 September 2012, approximately 1510 hours, 3 members and 1 guest, while driving their buggies on the traffic light pedestrian crossing at Loyang Avenue, nearly had an accident with a speeding motor car which ran the red light.

One quick thinking member took down the details of the vehicle and a report has been submitted to the Traffic Police for follow-up action.

Once again members are reminded to exercise great caution when making the crossing. The lighted Green Man does not guarantee a safe passage if the motorist or the motorcyclist is in a hurry.

Social Scene

Moon Cake Serenades Night cum Introduction Night

Saturday 29 September 2012

Under the light of a full moon, members & families and guests reveled in peeling pomelos, drinking Chinese tea, sharing moon cakes, cracking kua ji and peanuts while the children were treated to a quiz game laced with prizes. This was the mid-autumn festival ala Changi Golf Club and the new members who came for the Introduction Night were soon soaked up with the lantern lighting. The noon time thundery shower provided a cool breeze for the evening, with the line of lighted paper lanterns swaying and beckoning to the moon.

All clubs would like to have good members but like the World always say, "Find good people and leave bad ones." But the wise owl would say, "Find the good in people and ignore the bad in them."
