JULY 2018

Editor's Column

In the last couple of weeks, football fever is clearly in the air. Personally I am not a fan of football and I often wonder what the fuss is about? And why many people would spend hours watching the boring matches and discussing them afterward? I am sure people who do not play golf and not a fan of golf would have similar questions.

So what make golf so interesting to golf players and fans. Personally, there are many good reasons and I like to share a few here:

1. It is about friends. When you play golf play with friends, there's engagement, laughter, mutual support, and bonding over 'makan'.
2. It is about you. How you handle yourself physically and mentally. Whether you will learn patience and acceptance to enjoy the game OR you will quit. Whether you will learn to strive forward on a bad day and never give up OR you will quit.

3. It is about skills and luck. Playing golf is not easy. You will need practice and time on the golf course to improve your game. But often it is also luck, both good luck and bad luck. On a good day, you feel like you are playing like a professional. On a bad day, you feel like you are back to the days when you just began playing.

Bits & Pieces from the Club Manager's Desk

As we approach our Changi Charity Open (CCO18), we must say that some improvements have been made, with careful use of our resources. Some areas of the clubhouse have been washed and painted, our foyer lightings have been upgraded to energy saving low maintenance LED. The weathered stains on the walls were carefully removed to prevent removing all the paint.

Up front at #345, the walls had a fresh coat of paint. Our shoe wash bay have been brightened up by removing the trees that provided shade but with a lot shedding leaves that requires a lot of maintenance.

On our playing surfaces, our course maintenance team is patching bare spots. At this point, I plead to all golfers to carry the sand bottle with you and to fill you divot hole immediately after your shot. Do not litter around our facilities and we hope to be able to maintain an old but fresh looking Changi Golf Club. Have a great day!

Safety on our golf course

Changi Golf Club, although a nine hole golf course, has managed to weave a healthy and challenging path for golf through the limited land area that we have. On our golf course, we do have holes and landing areas that are out of our line of sight and some that criss-cross each other. Please be mindful and deliberate in making sure that there is no person in your line of fire – your golf shot.

The place where warm ups can be done will be our mini practice range next to the air traffic control facility, nearby our first tee box. At this practice area, you can take a full swing. With limited space, please be mindful to check that no person is around you when you take a swing.

In between the starters shed and the 1st tee box, there is a beautiful practice green. This is strictly for putting practice with putters ONLY. The Club prohibits chipping or pitching practice on all other areas around our golf course, unless otherwise proposed and agreed by the Club for special events. We like to avoid incidents as well as straining our turf.

Refreshment Face Towels

While striving to provide better service, we have feedback from our caterer Changi Golf Bistro, that face towels have been thrown away. Please help prevent wastage of resources.

CPR & AED Training and Familiarization

Mon, 9 Jul 18:

A training & familiarization on CPR (Cardiopulmonary resuscitation & the use of AED (Automated External Defibrillator) was conducted on Monday 9th July 2018. This six monthly training provides our staff at Changi Golf Club, the necessary information on early response in case of an emergency. The trainer from EO, Mr Ang, provided a brief but practical approach to attend to a casualty. The staff were shown how to perform chest compression to provide blood circulation to the casualty and also the positioning of AED pads for effectiveness.

Changi Golf Club has two AEDs, one located at the #345 golf office and one located in the main clubhouse. Thanks to all staff who attended.
